
Nikhil Murali

Dusk

For Strings and Piano

PREVIEW ONLY

Instrumentation:

Violin I (6)
Violin II (6)
Viola (6)
Violoncello (5)
Contrabass (2)
Piano (1)

Composer's Notes:

As a 7th grader, I had only been playing cello for a little under a year. With each new aspect of western music I got introduced to, from the other instruments in the orchestra, or the simple act of playing together, or the role of a conductor in helping the orchestra create the music, my fascination grew deeper and deeper. Then I discovered composing.

I found out that my friend Adrian Sisso wrote his own music, and very soon became obsessed with doing the same. Over the next few years, I started and failed at several projects, including a series of 3 movements for strings and piano, each respectively titled Dawn, Dusk, and Midnight. Of the three, Dusk remains the only one that has been completed.

As the first piece I've written, Dusk is always going to hold a special place in my heart. I wrote it in 7th grade, but rewrote it again in 9th grade, where it premiered at the Seven Lakes High School Spring Concert in May of 2021. Dusk is a piece about transition, attempting to convey the subtle eagerness one has for moving on to a new chapter of life, with the melancholy sadness of leaving the old one behind. Although there is no narrative attached to it, it still takes the listener on an emotional journey as they come to terms with the changes life throws at them while still treasuring the memories made along the way.

Program note by the composer.

Duration ca. 5'

Nikhil Murali

Elegantly ♪ = 55

[illegible]

Musical score for "The Rose Tree" in 3/4 time. The score is written for a four-part vocal ensemble (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) and a piano accompaniment. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The tempo is marked "mod." (moderato). The score includes a piano introduction, a main melody with a "div." (divisi) section, and a concluding section. The piano part features a prominent triplet melody in the right hand and a supporting bass line in the left hand. The vocal parts enter with the melody in the first system. The score is marked with dynamics such as mp (mezzo-piano), p (piano), and div. (divisi).

Musical score for "The Rose Tree" in 3/4 time. The score is written for a four-part vocal ensemble (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) and a piano accompaniment. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The tempo is marked "mod." (moderato). The score includes a piano introduction, a main melody with a "div." (divisi) section, and a concluding section. The piano part features a prominent triplet melody in the right hand and a supporting bass line in the left hand. The vocal parts enter with the melody in the first system. The score is marked with dynamics such as mp (mezzo-piano), p (piano), and div. (divisi).